

All compensation under warranty will be strictly in proportion to the market value of the foods in question. Determination of the market value: the compensation payable reduces by 1/20 of the original value each year. If the claim under warranty is recognised, the customer will be provided with necessary replacement panels free of charge by the store that made the original sale. The costs of installation are at the expense of the customer; consequential losses and costs of any nature whatever are not covered by the warranty. In the event of Venta Clip not being available in the required colour, a selection will be made from the product range at that time.

The warranty is subjected to the Belgian law. The competent court in Belgium shall have the right of exclusive jurisdiction.

*For light commercial use the warranty is limited to 5 years. On premises used for commercial purposes, door mats or other shoe-cleaning facilities must be provided.
